District 13 Fall Conference Workshops

4:30-5:15pm - Ohio PTA Leader Q & A Assistance Tables -Have questions about your unit? Your PTA position? How to get more involved? Having a problem in your unit or District? Ohio PTA leaders will be available to answer your specific questions during registration. Stop by one of the resource tables to get some advice.

5:00-5:15pm – Welcome Session/Introductions/Dinner begins

5:15-6:10pm – Dinner Speaker -Annie Stephens, Ohio Outreach Coordinator, Sandy Hook Promise Program – Learn about no cost, easy to implement programs and tools that help protect kids from threats and violence in schools and at home. Discover how to bring these no cost tools and best practices to your school to help prevent all forms of violence.

6:10-6:15pm – Break

6:15-7:05pm – Workshop Session I

Presidents Staying on Track- Anna Chapman, OPTA President Elect, will make sure you are on the right path to a successful year. (Gold Key 1st Step and 2nd Step Leadership)

Bylaws and Standing Rules - Why is it important to keep your bylaws updated? Learn how to amend/revise your bylaws and standing rules, and submit them to Ohio PTA. (Gold Key 1st Step)

PTA Basics - Discover PTA's history, structure, programs, and the issues for which it advocates. Learn the basic governance structures of most PTA units. (Gold Key 1st or 2nd Step Leadership)

Nominating Committees – Be prepared to elect and instruct your nominating committee to choose the best officers to lead your unit. (Gold Key 1st Step) - Lisa Weaver, VP of Leadership.

7:10-8:10pm – Session II

Speaker from Ohio Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force/Office of the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor

Internet and Device Safety- In today's world, children and teens are often more adept at using the computer than their parents. However, the Internet poses a lot of risks to our youth, which is why parents need to learn about Internet safety to protect their family. The Internet is a great resource. But it also exposes your children to sexually explicit material, predators, violent and offensive material, cyber bullying, and illegal activities

8:15pm- Basket Raffle and turn in conference evaluations
